TOWN HALL MEETING
OF THE
LEE COUNTY BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS
BROADWAY COMMUNITY BUILDING
BROADWAY, NORTH CAROLINA 27505

APRIL 14, 2014

The Town Hall meeting of the Lee County Board of Commissioners for the County of Lee, State of North Carolina, convened at 7 p.m. at the Broadway Community Building, Broadway Road, Broadway, North Carolina, on said date. Commissioners present were Amy M. Dalrymple, Charles T. Parks, Kirk D. Smith, and James K. Womack. Staff present included County Manager John Crumpton, Legal Clerk Kerry Schmid, and Clerk to the Board Gaynell Lee.

Chairman Parks welcomed everyone and opened the meeting with a power-point presentation giving an overview of County finances, new businesses in the County, School Resource Officer program, strategic plan for economic growth, space study for Capital Improvement Plan (CIP), revenues, expenditures, property tax decrease, real property revaluation, sales tax distribution, and debt reduction and bond rating.

No one signed up to speak but the following did make comments:

- Lynne Green, Broadway Town Commissioner – thanked Commissioners for coming to Broadway and sorry that more citizens didn't attend the meeting,
- Bob Stevens, Broadway Town Manager – Questioned why Commissioners didn't take the 3 cent tax cut from last year and apply to debt,
- Judy Davis, Broadway resident – questioned why Lee County does not have a room occupancy tax; wants more/better shopping in Lee County, and
- Donald Andrews, Broadway Mayor – thanked Commissioners for coming to Broadway.

Senator Ron Rabin gave a brief overview of what is going on in Raleigh at this time.

Chairman Parks thanked everyone for attending the Town Hall meeting and invited guests to meet with Commissioners after the meeting if they had additional questions.

With no additional business to come before the Board, Chairman Parks adjourned the meeting at 8 p.m.

Charles T. Parks, Chairman
Lee County Board of Commissioners

ATTEST:

Gaynell M. Lee, Clerk to the Board
