

Medical Surveillance Policy

Number: J-10

Revision: 0

Effective Date:
09-21-2009

Pages: 1

1.0 Policy/Procedure

When employees work with certain toxic chemicals, infectious diseases, biological agents, excessive noise, or wear respiratory protection, it is required that those employees be medically evaluated.

Department Directors are responsible for informing the employee of the specific requirements in the North Carolina Occupational Safety and Health Standards.